In the early morning, meet and greet at your hotel.

Today you will discover one of the authentic Floating Markets: Damnuern Saduak in Ratchaburi. Close to the market you will board a fast long tail boat, which will bring you through the narrow klongs to the market. You will enjoy watching the farmers selling fruit and many kinds of local products in their boats. If you want you can take one of the paddle boats to cruise through the market (optional). After this great experience you will continue your trip to another famous market: the Maeklong train market. People are always busy with buying and selling their products at the market. Then a piercing siren sounds and in a flash the market transforms – the shoppers disappear and the stallholders whip away their produce. The market comes to a standstill as all the vendors hold on to the poles supporting their awnings to make way for the train to pass. It is such a tight squeeze that the train travelling at about almost 15 mph / 24 km/h.

touches the fruits and everything else at the marketplace as it passes through. Afterwards a transfer back to your hotel in Bangkok.

Tour 4: Bicycle Tour Bangkok

A fascinating bicycle journey through a Muslim community and onward to Old Customs House, which is beautifully located right on the riverside. Here we take a moment to enjoy, what used to be, the first stop for travellers and merchants entering Bangkok from abroad. Next, we weave through the maze of small, vibrant and bustling streets in Bangkok's Chinatown to witness the diverse cultures that make up this densely-populated part of the capital.

From Chinatown, we continue towards the river to get some cool air and absorb the sights and smells of the flower & vegetable markets.

We then cross the mighty Chao Phraya river by ferry and dock at one of the most beautiful temples of Bangkok, Wat Arun. We continue our journey by exploring the historic Thonburi side of the river and make a stop at the picturesque Princess Mother Memorial Park. The park which has many beautiful flower gardens and the occasional exhibition for you to enjoy during a short leisurely break. Before we start backtracking to the starting point we encounter yet another dimension to the diverse tour. Wat Prayoon and Wat Kalayanamitr are lesser known temples than Wat Arun yet they are equally impressive.
